

DEVON AND BRIANNA

HELLO!

Thank you for taking the time to look at our story. We recognize both the difficulty and the courage required for this process.

We are Brianna and Devon. We are a young couple who are excited to become first time parents through adoption. We have been married for 5 years. After we got married we wanted to start a family but for 4 years have struggled with infertility. After a lot of prayer and discussion, we were led to adoption. We are ready to start our family and so excited for this next chapter! We understand that there is great joy when it comes to adoption as Devon's mother was adopted. We see the joy that this has brought our family and cannot wait to continue this joy through our adoption as well. Your story will hold a special place in our home. Thank you for reading our story!

With all the best wishes!

Brianna and Devon

We met 8 years ago in college!
We had several mutual friends
that had introduced us and
from there we got to know
each other, we created memories, and are excited for the adventures to come!

We both love our families!

MEET DEVON

When I first met Devon, he was someone I clicked with immediately. He was a goofball who made me laugh and is someone who makes you happy to be around.

He is passionate about everything he does. He loves sports. If there is any type of game, he will be ready to watch and give you the play by play. He loves soccer. He grew up playing and is still very involved today. He continues to play in our local adult league for the community. Devon works hard with anything he does. He works from home as an accountant for a medical company.

Devon has always been so great with children. Anytime we see our nephew, he only wants his uncle DevDev. He is a big family man with an even bigger heart. He will make a great father someday.

MEET BRIANNA

Brianna is a wonderful partner. When I first met her, I just knew she was the one. She has such a bubbly personality that is hard not to love. When it comes to caring for others, she is kind, compassionate, and selfless.

Her ability to love and her big beautiful smile make her being a teacher the perfect fit. She loves every kid in her class as if they were her own and will do anything to help them succeed. She loves the great outdoors and all animals. If she could, she would be outside all day every day. She loves all sports and is active in her school as the Cheer coach.

Whenever we see our nephew, his face just lights up with excitement to see his aunt Nanner. She has a glow about her when she is around kids and her beautiful smile always comes out. She will be an amazing Mother.

Dear Potential Birth Parent,

This letter has been a long time coming, since all Brianna ever wanted to be since she was little, was a mother. As a mother, it has been very hard for me to watch Brianna and Devon go through the painful process of infertility. We were overjoyed and felt like all of our prayers had been answered when we found out they were seeking adoption. We have never imagined their family without a house full of kids. Brianna and Devon both are such patient and loving people. We can't wait to love the child that they have always dreamed of.

A LETTER FROM

family

We are very excited and blessed to know that Devon and Brianna are ready to expand their family through adoption. We know that they are ready to love any child that comes into their home. As a child of adoption myself (Devon's mom), I know children are loved unconditionally. I know that Devon and Brianna will bring that same love into their home.

Watching them at Church and their interactions with "their kids" (all of the Children at Church) we can see the love pouring out of them. I think back to Devon when he would mentor and remembering him mentoring and seeing how excited he was to see them and they to see him. We just can't wait to be grandparents and love this child unconditionally.

Our Pets

This is Loki. We have had him for 4 years. We brought him home when he was just 6 weeks old. He is very playful and loves to soak up the sun.

This is Pearl. We have had her for a little over a year. She is 3 years old. She loves all of the cuddles and to be near anyone who comes over.
